MAKE YOUR WAY addresses today s career development needs of the Christian community. With today s dynamic employment environment, a biblically based perspective is provided to equip you to Make Your Way through the ever-changing, and sometimes turbulent, career transition challenges. Whether you are just preparing to enter the work force or looking for new opportunities to achieve fulfillment in your career, MAKE YOUR WAY will fully equip you to achieve your God-given career potential. You will be fully equipped to MAKE YOUR WAY toward receiving the well done accolade of Mathew 25 as you, enter into the joy. MAKE YOUR WAY consists of the following topics: Network Advantage Provides the proven basis for effective networking along with a plethora of helpful networking resources. From the apostle Paul s many contacts referenced in his epistles to today s highly technological social networking media, the underlining principles of successful networking have not changed. Plus sure-fire ways to get over one s shyness are discussed in a fun dialogue. Career Development Planning Offers the practical tools for identifying and aligning your passions with your strengths to establish a solid footing for the pursuit of obtaining your God-given potential. Job-Capture Coaching Delivers the nuts-and-bolts of career planning. Being fearfully and wonderfully made (Psalm 139:13-14), we can leverage our unique design to effectively focus our job search, resume building, interview techniques, and job negotiations as we Make Our Way toward our calling. Goal Getting Brings the above lessons together for the purpose of Making Your Way - being intentional about setting and achieving goals. Recent research has enlightened us as to how our brain functions. We now better...
