And on the 16th of July of the same year, an able and eloquent writer in the Enquirer complains, in strong and pointed terms, of the indifference with which the most dazzling victories achieved on land were received by the public mind, compared with the exulting throb of joy which animated every heart at the most trivial triumph on the water. Our heads, he says, are all turned towards the ocean, as the only field of fame, and as the only theatre where the honour of the country can be upheld and the glory of our ancestors sustained. An account of the most daring enterprise...
