Excerpt: . City Road Chapel Opened Sunday, November 1, was the day appointed for opening the new chapel in the City-road. It is perfectly neat, but not fine; and contains far more people than the Foundry: I believe, together with the morning chapel as many as the Tabernacle. Many were afraid that the multitudes, crowding from all parts, would have occasioned much disturbance. But they were happily disappointed: there was none at all: all was quietness decency, and order. I preached on part of Solomon s Prayer at the Dedication of the Temple; and both in the morning and afternoon (when I preached on the hundred forty and four thousand standing with the Lamb on Mount Zion), God was eminently present in the midst of the congregation. Mon. 2.--I went to Chatham, and preached in the evening to a lively, loving congregation. Tuesday, 3. I...
