His quickness or manner and readiness ofap. prehension were astonishing. A young lady, with whom be was one day in company, sat down to the harpsichord, in order to discover how ft. affected him. To the music he paid little atten tion, but he was greatly interested to discover, how the sounds were produced. He at the same. time sung a song in the Pelew style, but it was, very harsh., i. We have already observed that he was naturally polite-rie davat dinner- MrSi Wilson desired, him to help her to some cherries, when Lee Boo very quickly proceeded to take them up with hUj fingers. She pleasantly hinted his error, when h- immediately took up a spoon, his countenance at the same time being suffused with a. blush. Captain Wilson, one day, happening to rebuke his son for some trifling neglect, in the presence of Lee Boo, the generous prince was not happy till he had joined their hands, which he did will? the tears of sensibility streaming from his eyes. He was very fond of going to church, because he understood it was a religious duty, the object and final end being the same both at Felew and in England. He preferred riding in a coach to every other conveyance, as it...
