

Bertrand Russell on Modality and Logical Relevance (Paperback)

By Jan Dejno Ka

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .BERTRAND RUSSELL ON MODALITY AND LOGICAL RELEVANCE - SECOND EDITION of 2015. Praise for the first edition of 1999: In the twenty-nine years since Russell s death, much of the major scholarship has drawn heavily on his manuscripts and unpublished correspondence. The author shows that the published Russell is capable of new interpretations; in particular, that modal notions such as possibility have a greater place in various aspects of his logical and philosophical thought than has been previously imagined. - Ivor Grattan-Guinness, Foreword to the first edition. EXCERPT FROM PUBLISHED REVIEW: Dejno ka s book is the first full-length study of modality in Russell. It is useful for its very full survey of passages in which Russell makes use of or alludes to modal notions. Dejno ka s command of Russell s huge output is indeed impressive and his utilization of it thorough. - Nicholas Griffin, Studia Logica. EXCERPT FROM PUBLISHED REVIEW: Dejno ka s book raises a very important point in the history of formal logic. Until now the major studies on this topic have...
