THE REFLECTORY: A NOVEL OF SUSPENSE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A husband and wife, mourning the loss of their child. A revered genius, murdered inside his own creation. A centuries-old invention, with the key to ultimate enlightenment. Step onto the grounds of a secluded estate. and fall into the extraordinary. After the death of his son in a car wreck two years ago, Alex Fitzgerald is overcome by a condition known as synesthesia. His thoughts transform into abstract paintings; layered, textured, and visual. Life, tenuous and fleeting life, becomes earthy and sweet like cinnamon. The condition subsides but is replaced by something even more abstract. Kate, his dear wife, having also just lost her mother, must cope with the two devastating deaths while trying to stay in love with a gifted, yet troubled husband. So when the couple receives an invitation to stay at a secluded estate near Split Rock Lighthouse on Lake Superior, it's a marriage-saving offer they can't refuse. But from the moment they arrive, the romantic tranquility of the grounds is an illusion. A bizarre man running through the woods tells Alex, The Reflectory is not finished, it's never finished, it needs someone, while warning him about a Tin Man. AT ITS OPENING ARE THE REVELATIONS YOU HAVE SOUGHT An antique boat with a most unusual design hangs on chains in the boathouse at the ready; a conspicuous door that seemingly opens to a stone wall is locked tight. AT ITS CORE, ENLIGHTENMENT Enigmatic notes in Latin and a guestbook entry left by the murdered owner hint of a secret creation made by Isaac Newton. AT ITS END, DELIVERANCE Part romantic suspense, part thriller, The Reflectory is about the texture of ideas, the contour of thoughts, the color...
