The question before us is, whether a state court has jurisdiction in an action of debt (in the language of the National Bank Act) to recover back twice the amount of the interest thus paid from the association taking or receiving the same; that is to say, when illegal interest is taken contrary to its provisions. The Act of Congress of June 3, 1864, 30, allows national banks to take interest at the rate allowed by the laws of the state where they are located and no more, and then proceeds: And the knowingly taking, etc. (ut supra). Bearing in mind the words of the act, that a right of action in debt is given to the debtor and those who represent him only, and not to the government or the public,...
