B-275273 Monitoring Activities Included Monitoring activities for school year 1996-97 focused exclusively on Use of Enrollment Cards and overseeing the schools implementation of the enrollment card and on Identifying Nonresidents DCPS identifying nonresidents. During the early part of the school year, Central Office staff visited each of the schools three times to monitor enrollment cards. Eighteen members of the Central Office staff were temporarily reassigned to monitor the cards. Staff paid the first monitoring visit within the first 2 weeks of school and focused on the extent to which schools were following the process, that is, distributing and completing enrollment cards and filing them in the appropriate locations. Staff paid the interim monitoring visit before the official enrollment count and SIS reports, and manually tallied students, comparing the enrollment cards, the preliminary count documents. Staff paid the final monitoring visit after the October 3 count and were to verify that names on the enrollment cards homeroom rosters. SIS matched those on Nonresident students of the District of Columbia were to be identified through local schools monitoring of the completed data verification forms. The Nonresident Tuition Enforcement Branch was to investigate cases the schools identified. In addition, staff from this branch were to visit the schools to survey cars transporting students to and from school, identifying all out-of-state license plates. The monitors were also to review enrollment cards and residency verification forms to determine if the forms indicated residency issues. The branch was to investigate all identified cases and assess tuition for students found not meeting the Districts residency requirements. DCPS...
